Hally Beth Poindexter Young Scholar Award
Open Paper Competition for Young Professionals

The National Association for Kinesiology in Higher Education (NAKHE) invites new professionals, employed for a period of 5 or less years and is currently at an institution of higher education, to participate in a special program at the 2018 conference in Phoenix, Arizona on January 3-6, 2018. The 2018 NAKHE conference marks the 18th year in which the Executive Board of NAKHE has approved an Open Paper Competition to encourage the development of innovative ideas and discussions from our newest members of the profession.

The winner of the Hally Beth Poindexter Young Scholar Open Paper Competition will present the paper at a special session at the 2018 conference. In addition to this unique presentation opportunity, the Hally Beth Poindexter Young Scholar receives a monetary prize and is given a free membership in NAKHE for the upcoming year. The 2018 Homan’s Lecturer will serve as the respondent to the 2018 Hally Beth Poindexter Young Scholar.

Submission Guidelines:

Send two electronic copies (with author information on only one of the copies) of the paper described in the Call for Papers below to:
Dr. Emily Wughalter
E-mail: Emily.Wughalter@sjsu.edu

SUBMISSION DEADLINE – September 15, 2017

If you have any specific questions related to the Hally Beth Poindexter Young Scholar Award, please feel free to contact Emily.Wughalter@sjsu.edu.
If you would like specific conference information, please visit the conference web page at http://www.nakhe.org or contact Britt Johnson at bjohnson35missouriwestern.edu the conference planner.

I hope to see you in Phoenix, Arizona in 2018!

Sincerely,

Emily H. Wughalter, Ed.D.
Chair of the NAKHE Awards Committee
2018 NAKHE Hally Beth Poindexter Young Scholar Award

Call for Papers

A call for papers is made each spring by the National Association for Kinesiology in Higher Education. The NAKHE Hally Beth Poindexter Young Scholar Award provides an opportunity for the newest members of the higher education profession to present professional papers focusing specifically on interdisciplinary issues facing kinesiology, physical education or general higher education environments.

Topics
Original, unpublished research reports, position papers, philosophical statements, or a summary of the present state of an issue may serve as the basis for scholarly papers

Selection Criteria
1. Candidates must be full-time faculty members in their first five years of employment at a college or university setting.
2. Submissions may not have been previously published or presented.
3. Selection of papers is made on the basis of scholarly content, organization, and pertinence to Kinesiology, Physical Education or Higher Education from an interdisciplinary perspective. The body of the paper may not exceed fifteen (15) typed pages, double spaced.

Selection of the Winning Paper
The winner will be selected by a blind review process using the following criteria: (a) a strong connection to the review of current literature in the field, (b) writing style, (c) originality of idea/concept/style of presentation, (d) practical application potential, and (e) the potential contribution to the field.

Awards
1. The author who receives the NAKHE Hally Beth Poindexter Young Scholar Award is expected to attend and present his or her paper at the 2018 NAKHE conference.
2. A $250.00 award will be presented to the selected author.

Submit paper electronically as an attachment to:
Dr. Emily Wughalter
Emily.Wughalter@sjsu.edu

Deadline for Submitting Papers:
September 15, 2017 (Acceptance and Notification by October 15, 2017)

Presentation Location:
2018 NAKHE Conference, Phoenix, Arizona

Additional Information:
Dr. Emily H. Wughalter
Emily.Wughalter@sjsu.edu
(408) 924-3043